SOUTHAMPTON YOUNG ADULTS EMPLOYMENT HUB

Southampton City Council are working in partnership with the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) and No Limits to support the city's young people into training, apprenticeships and employment opportunities with the new Young Adults Employment Hub. We are able to signpost to advice and support around housing, benefits, health and wellbeing to provide a holistic and person-centred service for young people. The Young Adults Employment Hub utilises a wealth of virtual tools including web chat, video conferencing, online resources and podcasts so we can still work with people during the pandemic. If you're aged 16-25 and live in or around Southampton, you can get support from us to find employment. To get support from a dedicated Young Adults Employment Hub Worker -
